Testimonial for Javian Ng

Outside ACJC, Javian have been dedicated to Zen Taekwondo Academy club, attending regular weekend trainings in addition to the vigorous academic and hockey trainings.

A well-liked and hardworking fighter, Javian trained hard and persevered through the tough trainings which was physically and mentally exhausting. He gave his 100% during trainings and never had his head down despite losing to his well-experienced black-belt seniors numerous times, always standing back up to fight back.

His efforts none the less paid off when he represented the club in 4 separate tournaments in 2018, clinching 3 gold medals in the National Taekwondo Kyorugi Championships 2018 Ambassador Cup, Singapore National Games, Singapore Youth Olympic Festival and a bronze for the 6th Daedo Taekwondo Open Championships 2018.

This attest for his passion and pursuit for excellence in things outside of academics.
